MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS

Miss Marie Cushing has been the guest of honor at a number of pleasant affairs during the past week, or so, among them a supper and slumber party given by Miss Laura Stevens, a "fate" luncheon and Orpheum party given by Miss Vera Fager, a theater party with a supper following given by Miss Helen Deane, and a luncheon yesterday at which Mrs. Lafayette Lenz Butler was the hostess.

Miss Mary Louise Hays, youngest daughter of S. Hays, entertained in honor of her birthday Saturday. Ten of her young girl friends were present. A matinee party at the Orpheum was followed by a tea at Franklin's. The table was decorated entirely in pink. The young girls were chaperoned by Mrs. L. J. Hays and Miss Lou Hays.

One of the gatherings of the week was the informal party given by the Misses Edith and Neva Walker, two popular university students, to a few college girls. In addition to the amusement furnished by the use of numerous Ouija boards, readings by Zina Woolf, piano selections by Leda Wallace and Irene Seabee, as well as university songs by all, were features of the evening. The guests were Bess Judd, Zina Woolf, Mary Bingham, Edith Eckstrom, Mary Beach, Leda Wallace, Winnifred McNaughton, Alice Hurst, Cordia Henderson, Jennie Gabbot, Hannah Bearson, Marie Seabee, Margaret Mansfield, Miss Brewer, Valerie Moslander, Leona McDonald, Emma Nordvall, Irene Seabee, Nora Wanless, Ira Dell Anderson, Lois Walker, Erna Judd, Amanda Brim, Gertrude Hartwell, Daisie Harrison, Ruth Groeschner, Irene Tolton and Gladys Stewart.

A crowd of fifteen members of the Sunshine club spent last Tuesday very pleasantly with Mrs. H. C. Smith at her home. A buffet luncheon was served and later in the afternoon Mr. Smith, the assistant superintendent of the Arthur Mill, escorted the party through the mill. The club will meet next week with Mrs. E. J. Shields.

Miss Loumina Ritter entertained the members of the U. T. 500 club Tuesday evening when prizes were won by Miss Delphia Stewart and Miss Lucille Morrison. Mrs. A. L. Hanson entertains the club next Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Chytrants entertained last Thursday evening at a linen shower at her home, 555 East Eighth South street, for Miss Ethelyn Smith, whose engagement to R. C. Henderson was recently announced. Music and games were enjoyed and tea was served later. About thirty-five of the friends of the two young girls were present.

Mrs. Albert Fisher entertained the Ne Plus Ultra Bridge club very pleasantly at her home, when prizes were won by Mrs. Joe Hughes, Mrs. William Ames and Mrs. Cook. The rooms were bright with sweet peas and snapdragons and a delicious tea was served following the game.

Mrs. Jack Wheelhouse entertained the members of the Jolly Art club very pleasantly Wednesday afternoon at her home on Eighth West street. The long table was decorated entirely in ferns, the rich green making it most attractive.

Mrs. Addie Engilman entertained Friday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Ray, one of the early June brides. The parlors and hall were pretty in chains of many hearts, and in the dining rooms shaded pink, sweet peas and apple blossoms being used in profusion. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Sam Engilman and Mrs. Applebaum. Covers were laid for eighteen.

The senior class of the L. D. S. high school will give its commencement ball in the Odeon on Friday, May 17. One of the biggest dances of the year is promised. The class officers are working hard and nothing will be left undone which will go to make the ball a success. Not only the L. D. S., but the Salt Lake high school and the University of Utah are looking forward to this dance with delight.

The ladies' auxiliary to council 81 of the U. T. C. T. will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the K. of P. hall.

The Souvenir Card club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. James Terry, Jr. Four tables of bridge were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Len Evans and Mrs. Will Green.

Mrs. Loraine Santley, mother of Fred Santley, who played such a prominent part with Alice Lloyd, entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Hensel of Detroit, Mich., Tuesday evening at a box party. Mrs. Hensel was formerly Mrs. Mary of this city.

The T. O. N. O. club members were very pleasantly entertained Thursday by Miss Hortense Hansen. A color scheme of red and green was effectively used and those present were Misses Crete Coursey, Estelle Hansen, Rosa Burgan, Bessie Grace, Georgietta Hickman, Ida Madsen, Emma Tucker and Jennie Harrington.

Rubber Goods

There are just two kinds of Rubber Merchandise—the good and the bad. It is not always easy to distinguish between them either, but there is one test that tells the whole story and never fails—THAT IS THE GUARANTEE BEHIND THEM. If the manufacturer says "I will replace any article that is not perfect," rest assured that he is selling good rubber merchandise.

WE DO NOT BUY FROM A MANUFACTURER WHO DOES NOT GIVE THIS GUARANTEE and therefore we say to you: We guarantee every Water Bag or Fountain Syringe to be free from imperfections for one year from the date of purchase.

This week's special, a 2-quart no-seam water bottle, 75c—regular price $1.00—and fully guaranteed.
